

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—I have answered that. Possibly, they are the two sources.

Mr. SPEAKER.—You are discussing the problem now.

Sri P. R. RAMAIYA.—What is the reason for such high percentage of failures in English?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—I have answered that.

Sri P. R. RAMAIYA.—Is it due to the fact that Professorial staff is not properly equipped?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Equipment is one thing and Professorial staff is another. That also I have answered.

Sri P. R. RAMAIYA.—Regarding the information required about the students taking Kannada medium, at some stage the department will have to sort out papers relating to Kannada medium and therefore, that number could be ascertained and the required information made available.

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—It is not a question of sorting out. At the time of application they will have to open out a new column showing whether the student has taken Kannada medium or other medium. I will get the information.

Sri D. DEVARAJA URS.—In answer to (b) it is stated that the information is not available. Is it not better to know that information.

Mr. SPEAKER.—That is a suggestion no doubt.

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—It is better and I have already requested the University to fill up the lacuna.

ಶ್ರೀ ಎ. ವೆಂಕಟೇಶ್.—ಈ ಬಿ.ಎ., ಬಿ.ಎಸ್.ಸಿ., ಬಿ.ಇ., ಮತ್ತು ಇಂಟರ್‌ಮೀಡಿಯೇಟ್ ಅಭ್ಯಾಸಕ್ಕಾಗಿ ಹೊಸಗಡೆಯಿಂದ ಹೆಚ್ಚಿಗೆ ಪ್ರವಾಣದಲ್ಲಿ ಬರತಕ್ಕಂಥ ವಿದ್ಯಾರ್ಥಿಗಳಿಗೆ ಜುಲೈನಿಂದ ಕನ್ನಡ ಮಾಧ್ಯಮ ವನ್ನು ಅವರಿಗೆ ಗೊತ್ತುಪಡಿಸುವುದರ ಬಗ್ಗೆ ಪರಿಶೀಲನೆಗಳು ಹುಡುಗರು ಉತ್ತರಿಸಿದಾಗಲೇ ಇರಲು ಕಾರಣವಾಗಿವೆ ಎನ್ನುವುದು ಸರ್ಕಾರದವರ ಗಮನಕ್ಕೆ ಬಂದಿದೆಯೇ?

ಶ್ರೀ ಎ. ಜಿ. ರಾಮಚಂದ್ರರಾವ್.—ಈ ವಿಚಾರ ವನ್ನಾಗಲೇ ನಾನು ಹೇಳಿದ್ದೇನೆ.

ಶ್ರೀ ಎ. ಜಿ. ರಾಮಚಂದ್ರರಾವ್.—ಅನೇಕ ಕಡೆ ಆ ರೀತಿಯ ಅಭಿಪ್ರಾಯವಿದೆ.

ಶ್ರೀ ಎಂ. ಚಿಕ್ಕಲಿಂಗಯ್ಯ.—ಅನೇಕ ಕಡೆಗಳಿಂದ ಆ ರೀತಿ ವರದಿಗಳು ಸರ್ಕಾರಕ್ಕೆ ಬಂದಿರುತ್ತವೆಂಬ ಅಂಶ ತಮಗೆ ಗೊತ್ತಿಲ್ಲವೇ?

Judiciary (Separation from the Executive).

Q.—59. Sri B. NARAYANA SWAMY (Mysore City South).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

the action that has been taken to implement the scheme of separation of the Judiciary from the Executive and the reasons for the delay in implementing the scheme?

A.—Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO (Minister for Law and Education).—

The question of implementation of the separation of the judicial and executive functions in the State is closely connected with the question of redistribution of territorial and pecuniary jurisdiction of Courts in the State. A Committee was constituted under the Chairmanship of Justice Sri T. N. Mallappa, retired Judge, High Court of Mysore, to examine the question of redistribution of jurisdiction of Courts in the State and the said Committee which has submitted its report in the matter, has also furnished therein its considered views on the question of separation of Judiciary from the Executive, and this has also been taken into consideration.

As a further step towards the completion of the separation of the Judiciary from the Executive, the following measures have also been taken:

(i) All the civilian officers who were presiding over Magistrate's Courts in the State have been replaced by Officers of the Judicial Department.

(ii) The creation of the new Class of Civil Courts and the consequential redistribution of pecuniary jurisdiction of Courts necessitated the amendment of Civil Courts Act I of 1883. The Mysore Civil Courts Act 1883, which has been amended, facilitates the creation of a separate Class of Civil Courts designated as "Courts of Civil Judges" whose presiding officers who are intermediate in status between the Sub-Judges and District Judges, are to be entrusted with the judicial functions of a District Magistrate.

It has also been decided to fix the pay of this new class of Civil Judges at Rs. 800 per month.

Every effort is being made to complete the scheme for the separation of the Judiciary from the Executive as early as possible and there has not been any avoidable delay.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—May I know when this report was submitted to the Government?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—As I have already answered in another question, this report was submitted some time in January 1955.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—Has this report been examined by the High Court?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Yes. We have in fact been asking the High Court to give their views on this aspect as well as their present views and then we will examine it.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—Have Government come to any decision regarding the persons to be appointed as Judicial District Magistrates?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—It is under consideration.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—Is it not a fact that the delay is due to difference of opinion regarding the choice of personnel?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—No.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—Is it not a fact that several names are appearing in the press about the persons to be appointed as District Magistrates?

Mr. SPEAKER.—When he says that there is no difference of opinion, what is the use of pursuing this point?

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—How much more time will Government take to implement the separation of the Judiciary from the Executive?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—The real cause is this. With the opening out of this corridor, we want a few Munsiffs to be recruited. For that rules are being revised and as early as possible we will do it and make appointments.

Sri B. NARAYANASWAMY.—Is it not a fact that it is being stated for the last one year that the rules require amendment and the appointment of Munsiffs is being postponed?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—No, Munsiffs have been appointed recently. We want a few more. We are trying to revise the rules.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Question No. 79. Sri Kotra Basavana Goud.

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Regarding this question, I beg to submit that the answers are not quite accurate. I want the permission of this House to re-edit the whole thing and give correct answers as early as possible.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Then we will take up this question on another day.
